

Rogue Fuel: Industrial & Petroleum Solutions with Local Root

Rogue Fuel is a locally owned and operated industrial and petroleum supplier based in Sturgeon County, Alberta, operating as part of the Munro Industries network. Proudly Canadian, Rogue Fuel delivers wholesale pricing, factory-direct access, and simplified purchasing solutions to customers across Canada and the United States.

Outlined conceptually in September 2014, Rogue Fuel began as a fuel-savings initiative designed to help families and businesses manage rising costs through smarter purchasing strategies. Built on the belief that customers can't always increase income—but can control how they spend—the company developed a one-stop wholesale buying experience rooted in industrial supply access. Today, Rogue Fuel provides wholesale pricing on retail parts, bulk sales, and factory-direct sourcing across multiple sectors. Product and service offerings include agriculture and farm supplies, aircraft parts, batteries, fittings and valves, filters and service kits, fuel and storage tanks, fuel sales, oils and lubricants, and service equipment.

What sets Rogue Fuel apart is its nationwide factory-direct access and zero-markup stock transfers—an uncommon advantage that allows customers to source exactly what they need without unnecessary delays, markups, or logistical challenges.

While Rogue Fuel serves customers nationally, its foundation remains local. Community involvement, client project highlights, and participation in regional events—such as the Legal Parade—reflect the company's commitment to partnership, accessibility, and service.

COMMUNITY BINGO HIGHLIGHTS

The Legal Lions hosted a Community Bingo fundraiser on 29th Nov 2025 that proved to be a very successful event. For the first attempt at running an event of this size the Lions members showed their skills at coming together for the betterment of everyone in the community. The intent is to host 4 bingos a year in the future. The attendance at the bingo was incredible with over 200 people paying to play the games, this was fantastic for our first event. Thank you everyone who attended.

Special thanks go out to our corporate sponsors who helped with the event. Homeland Housing and Centennial Meats for the donation of ham and turkey prizes. Winners were so happy to have these prizes for the upcoming Christmas. Chateau Sturgeon Lodge for using their bingo machine. Door prizes were graciously donated by Belley Up Pub & Grub, Spirit Harbour Massage, and Lions President Amber Hopkins. And of course the Town of Legal with the donation of use of the hall as part of the community use agreements they have with ACFA. Without these donations this event would not have been as successful as it was.

Thanks to the Volunteers from Club 60 Roses, Homeland Housing and the Legal Lions Club for helping organize and run the bingo. And special thanks to our Mayor Andrew Beaton for being our bingo caller for the evening. Fantastic job everyone!

As per Lions Bylaws all funds raised from the public must be returned to the public; November 2025 Bingo funds were donated to Homeland Housing, Chateau Sturgeon Lodge, and Club 60 Roses.

CANADIAN REAL ESTATE SERVICE

February is the month of love, and at Canadian Real Estate Service, it's the perfect time to celebrate the places—and people—we love most. Home is where life's moments are shared, memories are made, and communities come together, and we're grateful to play a small role in helping our clients find the perfect place to call their own.

Loving Where You Live

From quiet winter mornings to cozy evenings spent indoors, there's something special about loving the home you're in. This Valentine's season, we're reminded that real estate isn't just about properties—it's about finding a space that fits your lifestyle, supports your goals, and truly feels like home.

A Thoughtful Start to the 2026 Market

While winter is still with us, the real estate market is beginning to show early movement. Buyers are starting their searches, and sellers who plan ahead often find themselves well-prepared for the busy months ahead. February is an ideal time to explore possibilities, ask questions, and plan your next move with confidence.

Planning Ahead with Care

If selling is on your mind for later this year, starting now can make all the difference. Simple preparations during winter can help ensure a smooth and successful sale come spring. For buyers, early planning offers the advantage of understanding market conditions and identifying homes that truly match what you're looking for.
